GOALPOST PICTURES AUSTRALIA NOMINATED IN TWO ASIAN SCREEN AWARDS

Goalpost Pictures Australia has been nominated for two significant screen awards in Asia.

Natalie Imbruglia, star of the Goalpost feature film Closed for Winter, directed by James Bogle and produced by Ben Grant, has been nominated for Best Actress in the ASIAN FESTIVAL OF 1ST FILMS, to be held in Singapore from December 2 – 4.

Scorched, the top-rating television drama special, which screened on the Nine Network last year, has been nominated for Best Single Drama or Telemovie Programme in the 14TH ASIAN TELEVISION AWARDS, to be announced in Singapore on 3 December. Scorched earlier this year won a Digital Emmy for Best Digital Fiction Program for its accompanying on-line drama. Scorched was directed by Tony Tilse and produced by Goalpost Pictures Australia's Kylie du Fresne, with Ellenor Cox of Firelight Productions.

"We are thrilled to be recognised for our work by these two prestigious Asian festivals and from a region that is producing some of the world's most exciting cinema and television. We look forward to the opportunity of forging further creative partnerships within the South East Asian region" said Ben Grant, Managing Director, Goalpost Pictures Australia.

Ben Grant and Kylie du Fresne will both be in Singapore for the awards.

Goalpost Pictures Australia is part of the Goalpost group, which also includes International sales company Goalpost Film based in London and production company Goalpost Pictures UK. Goalpost partners include Rosemary Blight, Kylie du Fresne, Ben Grant, Tristan Whalley, Nicki Parfitt and Cass O'Connor.
